

Birding by Ear Weekend Workshop at the Wilds

Welcome bird enthusiasts of any level
Expert to Beginner
JUNE 3-5, 2005

Fun with other birders

4 meals provided (bring snacks)

Stay in Mongolian yurts for 2 nights

Presentations on birding research and sound ID

2 mornings for surveying the un-birded Wilds

Enjoy quiet nights around a campfire

Search for owls after dark

Mist netting Grasslands & Forest Sites

Cost = $75/person (limited to 40, so register soon!)

Speakers & Topics:

Dr. Joe Robb, US Fish & Wildlife Service Big Oaks Refuge Manager,
Grassland Birds and Fire Management (Henslow's Sparrows).

Tom Bartlett, Audubon Bird Surveying Standards

Our Birding by Ear Instructors

John Kuenzli, OSU Prothonotary Warbler Researcher

Jason Beale, Aullwood Naturalist

Call to reserve your perch:

740-638-2116

aparker@thewilds.org

